THE BELLET OF SEC.

The paper will be sent according to orde per year, in advance, for If not paid within four weeks, These terms will be rigidly adhered to.

paid, and positive directions given to that effect LT Advertisements inserted at the usual rates until forbid, and charged accordingly.

Miscellaneous

Translated from the French, for Gleason's Pic. BY MISS ANNE T. WILDUR.

the Actor Vernet.

To me who has visited the modern eapital of the czars only during the sum- face. mer season, this graceful city has, concealed under its most picturesque aspect, its most original physiognomy. In fact, the wonderful appearance of a magnificent capital, created, so to speak, by the in the costume of Cossacks. This carstroke of a wand, surprises the imagina- riage with the Russian arms, is that of tion and captivates the eye; but, although the Empress. It is followed by a sleigh we may admire, we are slow to discover of exquisite symmetry, which flies over that originality of the Muscovite physiog- the snow, drawn by a vigorous black nomy, which we would like to be able to horse with a flowing mane. A military tropolis. Patience! Winter will come, row vehicle. By his modest cloak of gray and soon efface what there is of European cloth, the cape lined with beaver; by his in the city of Peter the Great, to imprint attitude, the position of his head and other upon it that eminently natural stamp tokens, we recognize the Emperor. Like elling towards their realization. Three barkin' and yelpin' and I started on the a sheet of ice traversed hither and thither ponds to each with grave and beny rapid sleights; some, arrived from Lap-evolent politeness.

The Emperor Nicholas loves thus to land, are drawn by light-footed reindeer.

the mute city; sometimes the sun shines The Perspective of Newsky and the Engbrightly; but its rays, decomposed by the lish Quay are the places he prefers. But condensation of the air, break on the the passengers are prohibited to accost gilded cupolas and belfries of the churches, him, and to present petitions, or to adfront of the towers, which at night an- otherwise, the Emperor would not be able nounce fires to the affrighted inhabit- to take a step without being annoyed with the carriages, which pass over it with a from the hero of the anecdote himself: metallic and vibrating sound. In other respects, its depth softens the noise of vehicles, which glide over it as if by en- said that the one at St. Petersburg justichantment. The foot passengers, wrap- fies this preference. Among the actors, ped in thick furs, pass along also noiselessly, and as if in haste to arrive. There admired. It was the celebrated Vernet. mer season, carrying their wares on the Perspective of Newsky. The crowd arare no travelling merchants, as in the sumtops of their heads, and crying them at ranged themselves beside his path and in a word, nothing to break the silence of ceived Vernet, who was standing aside the great city, which one might think to with the rest, and approached him. It story-teller, were it not that there is a ous, and which much embarrassed the movement during the few hours of day- modest actor. light,† of extreme activity. In certain streets, the Perspective of Newsky,† for example, it is an aristocratic movement; in others, such as the Place of the Sennoi and the adjacent streets, it is the popular movement. The Perspective of Newsky is an immense street, with broad sidewalks, whose pleasure. center, paved with hexagons, vertically placed, presents the aspect of a smooth parquet. But at present the parquet has disappeared beneath a deep layer of snow, over which are constantly passing elegant equipages. This street, which opens on the square of the Admiralty, is intersected by three concentric canals; the moika, the canal of Catharine, and the Fontanka. The winter promenade you must follow me. that of the Fontanka, which is called the me. bridge of Anitchkoff, from its neighborhood to the palace of that name, is distinguished by four bronze horses, the work of Baron Clot. The horses seem to rear on their elevated pedestals; their delicate and nervous limbs bend; their fore feet strike the air, and their open me sir!'

nostrils emit smoke. This bridge serves as a limit to the aristocratic promenade. The street continues to be broad and bordered with magnificent hotels, but it soon loses its character, to assume that of the populous quarters in the neighborhood. say here, that the Perspective of Newof every species of Christian worship.— Beyond the bridge Anitchkoff, we find a

The Perspective of Newsky should be seen on a fine day in winter, when the sky is clear, the air dry, and the snow sparkling. On the northern sidewalk, hour for the performance. Vernet had bour for the performance. Vernet had person found concerned in the traffic, no sparking. On the northern sidewalk, nour for the performance, vernet had person found concerned in the traffic, no matter what his rank or condition may be, sible for the following. It is decidedly is imprisoned or banished without ceredict.

The manager was obliged to change the traffic, no matter what his rank or condition may be, is imprisoned or banished without ceredict.

The manager was obliged to change the mony.—Boston Trav. toners of lively and variegated colors.—
The furs of the sibeline, or blue fox, are

Meanwhile the emperor had come to eigars and pipes is not permitted in any Rev. Mr. Smith. Mr. Smith. Smith. Mr. Smith seems to be worn over precious stuffs; velvet, satin, occupy his box, as he had promised the church in that community.

Indian cashmere, float over and sweep the actor, and was greatly disappointed at granite sand. Most of the men are mill- not seeing represented the Pere de la Detary. They give their arms to the ladies, butante. He was still more so not to see or march together with measured and Vernet in any of the pieces inscribed on a martial step. Lacqueys in brilliant liver- bill hastily written. He wished to know pelisses, while carriages and sleighs pass manager who announced the disappeared at given points. The middle of the street is not less ani- the sovereign, he hastened to say: mated. Sumptuous equippages, drawn by four horses, roll over the snow, and just before the rising of the curtain; but with their long beards, cloth robes con- should be found without delay." To insure a discontinuance at the end of the time subscribed for, all arrearages must be fined at the waist with girdles of silk or the emperor remained pensive. Sudgold, and Tartar caps, bordered with zib- denly he put his hand to his forehead: eline, guide these carriages with extreme of insertious marked on them, will be continued gravity and address. A young postilion, said he. 'This morning, I met Vernet > legs like Swedish pantalettes. The Perspective of Newsky is an ex-lice-officer touching the comedian, was costumes of Russia; priests, peasants A quarter of an hour afterwards, Verones, a he and a she, that ever you did never dies," hid in its shining folds. from every province, Tartar merchants, net was free, and entered the box of the Jews, etc., military uniforms, Circassians emperor, who had summoned him. of the imperial guard, etc.

Transformation—The Muscovite Stamp and coquetus sieigns give along, bother and the variations of the old heading is held to the pallid lip.

The Perspective of Newsky—The by steeds of marvellous swiftness. Some the old heading is held to the pallid lip.

The measured tread of the watchman have silken net-work in front; this is to me any favor you please.'

The measured tread of the watchman have silken net-work in front; this is to me any favor you please.'

The measured tread of the watchman have silken net-work in front; this is to me any favor you please.' crowd-The Emperor Nicholas and have silken net-work in front; this is to me any favor you please.

Often, one observes among these equipseize, at the first glance, in a Russian me- man of tall stature, is seated in the nar-The transformation is complete. The Sometimes he stops his sleigh and minlaughing and coquettish city, so freshly gles with the promenaders on the lower

Often, a dull and heavy sky hangs over walk alone, in the streets of his capital. requests. Here is an occurrence which The hard snow resists the wheels of happened a few years since; we had it

The Emperor often attends the Theatre Français, which he prefers, and it may be there was one whom the czar particularly

One day the czar was walking in the the tops of their voices; not even dogs; saluted him as usual. His Majesty perbe sleeping, like a certain city of the Arab was an honor of which many were jeal-

'Shall I see you this evening? the Emperor. 'Yes, sire, I shall have the honor to olay before your majesty the Pera de la Debutante. 'I am very glad. You are perfect in that role, and I shall applaud you with 'Your majesty is too indulgent.'

The Emperor addressed to him some But a nadziratel (police officer,) had and after the Emperor had left, approached the artist.

'You have accosted the Emperor, sir:

'What does he say?' asked the officer understand the Frenchman.

'Him? Come along then!

But I repeat to you, if there is any one to blame, it is the emperor. I am cy.-English paper. Vernet, of the Theatre Francais; do you not understand that the emperor knows would call assistance.

LAIRD & MATHEWS. slowly along the sidewalk, or are station- ance of the artist. As he saw dissatisfaction expressed on the countenance of rapidly pass each other. The coachmen, I immediately gave orders that Vernet

'It is I who am the cause of all this, gravity and address. A young postition, said ne. This morning, I met vernet degree, and conversed with him a moment. The least of the formulation ten to twelve years, rides one of the for- poor f llow must have been arrested. Let ward horses, his caftan falling around his him be immediately set at liberty.' At this moment, the report of the po-

Through all these, the narrow, showy czar, smilingly, for the misadventure cane like a quarter hoss that's flew the experiment is the fear that passengers and in Grave's cane since." freight will not offer, because the people cannot be made to believe that such a vessel would be sale. There are merchants and moneyed men, who are personal believers in the project, but they ed in the undertaking. It is worthy of in Noah's ark. The dimensions of the breadth of beam, 50 feet, depth, 25 1-2. The dimensions of the ark were,-length.

Ship Building.

VERY ROMANTIC, BUT A BAD EXAMPLE. -Mr. Cripps, a gentleman residing in other compliments, and went on his Linton on his property, was formerly engaged in an extensive brass manufactory in London. His son, a youth of 17, was been an eye-witness of this conversation, employed in the establishment, and one day chanced to get his ears boxed by his he absented himself, and was never heard brought a letter from the wayward, if not ney, and was there employed in catching of a spectator whom he thought might wild bullocks, of which he was to have a certain proportion as his share. He is now 'He says that the emperor accosted the possessor of a large tract of land, 400 beasts, and nearly as many horses all his own, and though 'married and settled,' proposes ere long to return to his fatherland and enjoy a respectable competen-

The Brazilian government deals very ens .- Art. Jour.

COMING TO LIFE. AN ARCANSAS BEAR STORY.

BY NED BUNTLINE.

to tell it in this way :

through without wearin off half its rattles, pang of despair.

She is to be driven by sixteen separate en- the ground and the hole she'd got in at. Over them all the Eve that never slum- be so in heaven." gines, having a total of 5000 horse pow- I never war much at climbin, so I gin up bereth, keepeth its tireless watch. Never

-Memphis Exprese.

now plying on the Atlantic, bear precisely black clot, a lump of unconsumed carmiles by nine, and forty round, with walls crimson silk back-ground is introduced. ordered him the means of paying one.one hundred feet high, and thick enough A velvet pile carpet is laid on the floor. On his next visit he saw at every column for three chariots abreast. Babylon was and the panels are adorned with paintings an old man rubbing himself; and on masixty miles within the walls, which were on glass, representing scens in Arabia and king the same inquiry received the same sever ty five feet thick and three hundred other parts of the East, amongst which is reply. His rejoinder, however, was not feet high, with one hundred brazen gates. a view of Jerusalem, another of Mount what they expected; for he said: "Well. The Temple of Diana was four hundred Ararat, and an encampment in the desert, gentlemen, as there are so many of you. feet high, and was two hundred years in which are very beautiful. The sleeping I should advise you to rub one another." building. The largest of the Pyramids is apartments are hung with Tournay cur- Augustus here taught them not to depend four hundred and eighty feet high, and tains, and the floors are laid with Brus- on the caprices of a patron, but help one cording to an official report of the Brazil- sixty-three feet on one side; its base cov- sels carpets. The Arabia is stated to another. ian government, it appears that the num- ers cleven seres. The stones are about have the largest and most powerful engines stand was, that the actor resisted him. - ber of Africans imported in 1838 amounthirty feet in length, and the layers ever put into a ship, and the ease and fa-A crowd had collected. The nadziratel ted to 60.000, and in 1847 to 54,000.— are two hundred and eight. Three hun-cility with which they work is a maked began to grow angry, and suddenly seiz- In the year 1851 the number was reduc- dred and sixty thousand men were emsky might well be called the street of Tolerance; for, with the exception of the English chapel, it contains the churches The artist was compelled to yield. The and one only, it is said, is known to have police-officer conducted him to the near-landed a cargo of slaves on the coast of It had one hundred gates. Carthage was est station, where he left him, postponing Brazil, and this occurred last June .-- twenty-five miles round, and so was Ath-

Night! The pulse of the great city lies Who hasn't heard of old Pete Beeves, since died away. The maiden dreams in one corner of the hall, to hear a popu- correspondent : the great bear hunter, and the biggest of her lover; the wife of her absent hus- lar lecture, was forced to vacate his seat "Mr. Faraday, in a late lecture before ies, follow their masters, carrying their the reason, and addressed himself to the story teller (1 beg his ghost-ship's pardon, for Pete has gone up to the happy freedom. Softly falls the moonlight on reaching his lodgings, he is said to have forces, made the following important anhunting grounds,) on the other side of the those quiet dwellings, yet under those delivered himself in this wise : "Where nouncement. Pete used to tell the following Bear breaking with misery too hopeless for women come from? They are on hand years been watching the spot on the sun. story, and up to the nour of his death was tears; forms bent before their time with in every emergency and are as gregari- and daily recording the result. From ever ready to swear by a stack of bibles crushing sorrow; lips that never smile, ous as sheep. They have a hand in year to year the groups of spots vary,—as high as cord wood, that it was true.— save when some mocking dream comes every place. No matter what may be the He'd even bet whisky on it, and yet he to render the morrow's waking tenfold occasion, the women are sure to muster. sometimes they are few. After a while it wasn't much of a betting man Pete used more bitter. There, on mother's laithful Go into our places of amusement, and became evident that the variation in num-

so thick that a rattle snake can't crawl ere that loving heart shall feel the death or a concert, or a meeting of spirit me- While our German friend was busy see, big as two year old steers, sure as There, the watcher by the couch of in thunder can they come from? Go comparing his tabular results with those I'm white. I let drive, and the old he pain, the dull ticking of the clock striking where you will, this women-rush is tre- of the German astronomer, he found that Transformation—The Muscovite Stamp and coquettish sleighs glide along, borne which has happened to you on my acer, and the average speed of twenty-five miles per hour, and to have berths and the she and started back to skin the old by that pitying ear. Never an unspoken told of the olden time in New England.—

the Empress, he has left the palace of Anitchkoff to repair to the Winter Palace. Anitchkoff to repair to the Winter Palace. Steamship Ara- S but one half that number have, if we misto make a preacher cuss. That infernal bia,' built at Glasgow, Scotland, for the respectable. The father could stand no knowledged at the Great Exhibition that take not, already been carried on a single he bar had come to life, and dragged the Cunrad Steamship Company, and design. such union, and resolutely opposed it. Lyons retained pre-eminence in designs blooming on the banks of her beautiful river, has disappeared, to give place to one, northern, cold, pale and silent. A mantle of snow envelopes it; its river has mantle of snow envelopes it; its river has and the daughter dare not disobey openly.

Seven hundred feet is a great length for a sea going vessel now, but not nearly so as a sea going vessel now, but not nearly so and the daughter dare not disobey—that dug-out, dog and all, purty nigh a quarter of as a regular packet between Liverpool and the daughter dare not disobey—that and the daughter dare not mantle of snow envelopes it; its river has become solid, and presents to the eye only considered fifteen years ago. The 350 and had gone down into the hole the length depth of hold. 28 feet; Custom-House pined and wasted in spite of herself. She and had gone down into the hole the length depth of hold. 28 feet; Custom-House pined and wasted in spite of herself. She others are in the bosom of the city.—

There are three hundred manufacturing have. Where are the passengers to come du rout into the hole. The stern stuck gines of nine feet stroke; the diameter tears," which women oftener reach in imfrom? say the doubting. Put the pas straight, out and in it sat old Bowler, yel- of the cylinders 103 inches; and the disage at $20 to $25, and you will see ! It pin' fike a wolf. Blame my skin, if it ameter of the paddle-wheels 36 feet. She mained inexorable. Time passed on. 250 per week offer themselves at $125 isn't as true as I'm white. I know'd I is provided with tubular boilers, which and the rose on Mary's damask cheek fore, it is not unreasonable to expect 500 could'nt kill that bar no more, so I took are fired from amidships. She has two passed off. She let no concealment, like at $75, or 1000 at $50, or 3000 at $25. good aim and shot away the line that masts, unlike the other vessels of the a flower in the bud, prey upon that dahim, and to present petitions, or to address him in any manner; the order is

The "Bloomers" in our city, even held the dug-out and it came down and company, which have three; and there held the dug-out and it came down and company, which have carried the

The "Bloomers" in our city, even
held the dug-out and it came down and company, which have three; and there held the dug-out and it came down and company, which have carried the which shine aloft with a reddich and sinwhich shine aloft with a reddich and sinister gleam, like the luminous globes in to the passengers. All that prevents the put for home, and I've never hunted bar attitude. The stern, which is elliptical, ower, and loved his girl dearly. Had it the sole of the foot. The frocks trail as is beautifully ornamented The prom- been a widowed mother who had Mary Thus endeth Pete Beeve's Bear story. enade deck extends the entire length of in charge, a woman's prile would never the vessel. The internal arrangements have given way before the importunity of ings" have in many parts of the city is of the Arabia are very similar to those in a daughter. Men are not, however, so with silks, mousselines and carefully the other vessels of the Cunard fleet, the stubborn in such matters, and when the Before you put the candle out look at comfort and convenience of passengers father saw that his daughter's heart was want confidence that they will be sustain- it. It has been burning some time un- being the first consideration. Beneath really set upon the match, he surprised snuffed, and gives little or no light; the the upper deck are saloons, stewards' her one day by breaking out-Mary. notice that the largest ocean steamships wick is long, and is topped by a heavy pantry etc. Between this pantry and the rather than more to death, thee had betsaloon two well-furnished libraries have ter marry as soon as thee chooses, and the same proportion in length, breath and bon; take the candlestick in your hand been placed. The saloon itself is capa- whom thee pleases." divided state in which it is best fitted for places, the whole of the apartments being were man and wife! combustion. The heat applied to 'light' heated by steam pipes traversing the > (C) A little boy, "well in his boots" for the first time, and very proud of them, said to his mother, after reading the customary chapter in Scott's Family Bible in the morning, "Mother, why didn't Moses wear boots?

"Why, my son, what makes you ask that ? perhaps he did wear boots, my dear;

A Bachelor's Soliloquy.

A very worthy single gentleman, who still. The echo of hurrying feet has long had early and snugly ensconced himself National Intelligencer, from its London roofs are hearts that are throbbing and in grace and thunder do these hosts of A German astronomer has for many diums, or a lyceum address, any place with his groups of sun-spots, an English I smelt bar and so did Bowler. I looked There, too sits Remorse, clothed in where they can congregate—and on a man was busy with the variations of the and thar wer' two o' the cussedest big purple and fine linen. the "worm that fair average, three-quarters of the people magnetic needle. He, too, was a patient tumbled over, and the she broke thro' the to the heart a nameless terror. With mendous, absolutely tremendous. Why, the variations of the magnetic needle corhave suken net-work in front; this is to keep off the snow raised by the horses' feet, and sometimes rudely thrown in the face.

The measured tread of the water maximum, and as he passes his round; the distant rumble of the coach, perchance the disjointed fragments of a song from bacchanalian face.

The measured tread of the water maximum, and as he passes his round; the distant rumble of the coach, perchance the disjointed fragments of a song from bacchanalian face. cost me when you meet me in the street.' keep him from munchin,' for that dog was lips, alone breaks the solemn stillness. everywhere preponderate. They are in and terrestrial magnetism; and new At such an hour, serious thoughts, like a majority, and it is ever an active, visi reaches of science are open to us." The emperor smiled at the repartee, powerful fond of bar meat, he was.

At such an hour, serious thoughts, like a majority, and it is ever an active, visi and affectionately dismissed Vernet, who "Then I put off after the she. The unbidden guests, rush in. Life appears ble, tangible, interfering majority. It cussed critter led me a tremendous chase like the dream it is-eternity the waking, constitutes, unquestionably, De Tocque--more'n two mile, and that's some jour- and, involuntary, the most careless eye ville's celebrated "Tyranny," And there ney in a cane brake-ef you don't be- looks up appealingly to him by whom the seems no help for it : not a peg to hang Darius Davidson, a celebrated naval lieve me, try it on. Then the beast had hairs of our heads are all numbered. a hope upon. As it is so here, it will be architect, of Boston, proposes to construct clum a tree about seventy feet high, more Blessed night! Wrap thy dark mantle so hereafter. It is so on earth, and," an immense steamer 700 feet in length .- or less, and thar warn't a limb between around these weary earthly pilgrims.- said he, in tones of utter despair, "it will state rooms for 3000 passengers! These "When I got to whar I'd left the dug- prayer for help that finds not its pitying It so fell out that two young people bein the city of Peter the Great, to imprint attitude, the position of his nead and other upon it that eminently natural stamp tokens, we recognize the Emperor. Like elling towards their realization. Three depth, as is recorded to have existed and move it gently from side to side; the ble of dining 160 persons; and here a And then, what did Mary? Wait till superfluous wick burns away, and the different style has been adopted from that the birds of the air had told her swain of Atlantic steamers are,—length, 233 feet. candle is again bright. When you ask to be seen in other ships of the line,— the change, or until her father had time yourself why this is, you learn that flame As the vessel has no mizzenmast, the sa- to alter his mind again; not a bit of it is hollow, and it admits no oxygen, which loon forms an unbroken apartment; and She clapped her bonnet on her head. 300 cubits, breadth, 50 cubits, depth, 30 is necessary for combustion; the wick the absence of the mast has also given an walked directly into the street, and then cubits. It will be seen, therefore, that which it surrounds remains unconsumed. opportunity to introduce a cupola, filled as directly to the house of her intended as the ark was nearly twice the size in length and diminishes the light. When the with stained glass. The cabinet work is the street would carry her. She walked and breath of these vessels, the cubit be- flame, by motion, leaves the wick exposed of bird's-eye maple, pannelled with a into the house without knocking-for ing twenty-one inches. After all the improvements of forty-two centuries, which have clapsed since the deluga, the ship.

at intervals to the oxygen of the atmosphere it speedily burns away. Note the phere, it speedily burns away. Note the phere it speedily burns away. Note the builders have to return to the model at formation of a wick which constantly crimson covered with Utrecht crimson hibited at so unexpected an apparition as formation of a wick which constantly forded by Noah's ark.—Newburyport turns outward and reaches the exterior velvet, and the floor is laid with a rich the heiress in the widow's cottage, but air, and so gives us a candle requiring no snuffing. There is much philosophy in saloon are filled with stained glass, repthe burning of a candle. The wick, you resenting groups of camels, with their dri- him, and took both his hands in hers. may think, is intended to burn and give vers, and other Oriental sketches; and "John," said she, "father says I may light, but this is not exactly the fact .- the opposite end of the saloon is decora- have thee." And John got directly up The wick is simply to bring the melted ted with plate-glass mirrors, in highly. from the dinner table, and went to the tallow, or oil if in a lamp, into that finely wrought gilt-frames. There are no fires parson's. In less than 25 minutes they father for some slight dereliction of duty. he absented himself, and was never heard of till one day last week, when the post brought a letter from the wayward, if not brought a letter from the wayward is not brought a letter from the wayward. the operation, and the heat so produced ple, and curtained and carpeted in the sion, he saw a veteran who had fought of these canals, which are crossed on large bridges of granite and of iron, of skillful and bold architecture. The latter that of the Fortral and state of the Fortral and the ANTIQUITIES .- Nineveh was fifteen and through the openings of which a this; and being told that he was too poor.

Madame de Genlis, says some body. reproved her librarian for putting books written by male and female authors upon the same shelf. "Never do it," said she, "without placing a prayer-book between them."

The fare from Cleveland to Buffalo. via the Lake Shore railroad, has been reduced from $5 to $3. The season steamers will soon relieve them of the trouble of changing cars and baggage so often.

"No, mother, he didn't because the OFMrs. H. B. Stowe has left for Livth:

'One of our exchanges praises an egg bible says that the voice came out of the good services will be exerted for the sixty try, he says the burning bush and told him to take off his

We find the following statement in the tell it in this way:

"I was down on Grave's Bayou, in a brow of infancy. Oh! could it but pass August. Look into our churches, and five years, and then on an ascending dug-out, with my old dog Bowler; had away thus! ere the bow of promise had three quarters of the congregation are scale through five subsequent years, so > much as ever-no pretty foot even can be seen .- and the only sweeping the "crossworked petticoats; but, from the head, downwards Bloomer carries the day .-There is a nice little jaunty bonnet which shows all the head, and is about as useful as a hat, as a covering. (no more)but then comes a waistcoat, a jacket, a short tailed frocked coat. The woman is almost a man now down to the waist: but, from the waist down, she is just as much a woman as ever. As proof, see the belles of Broadway, Fifth avenue, and its suburbs up town .- N. Y. Express.

Silk Manufacture.

The quantity of silk annually consumed by women and balloons is so great, that it is really astonishing how worms and mulberry trees keep up the supply. According to the Paris Review, there are in France po less than 180,000 looms for silk, of which the products amount to three hundred millions per annum. The fabrics of Lyons yield about or nearly two-thirds of that sum-a moiety of the whole is exported-three-fifths of the exports from Lyons; the United States consume the greater part. Competition is young woman's father was a wealthy formidable abroad, especially in Great age earning of the operative is 80 cents per day .- Scientific American.

GOT ME THERE .- An examination committee, about to test the capacities of an individual for school teaching, put the following questions to him: ·At what time did France produce her greatest general ?" 'At what period !' pausing and scratching his head-at what -ah! vou've got me there!

Well, was it before or after Christ ? Be-fore or af-ter Christ. Before or after. Well, old hosses, you have got me

A Goop ONE .- In the United States Senate last week, an Indiana man twitted Clark of Rhode Island, about the Governor of that State having so poor a salar that he was obliged to raise cows at peddle milk. Clark rejoined saying that while in Rhode Island they raised their calves and sold their milk, in indiana they raised their calves und sometimes ent them to Congress. The Indiana man sat down, pretty well skimmed.

COURT GOSSIP .- The following conversation, says the N. Y. Tribunc, is reported to have taken place between President Pierce and an office-secker, from Western New York:

President-How did you vote in *48 Office Seeker-For General Cass. course, sir. He was, you know, the ular candidate of our party.

President—I have been informed ou electioneered for Van Buren, ve for Cass, and celebrated the election Taylor. How was this? Office-Seeker-(Greatly embarras and fumbling his watch-chain.) Good bye, Mr. President. (He took the ne train for the North.)

(A Western editor thus su peculiarities of a contra He is too lazy to earn a mean to enjoy one.